

Chicago Final Cut Pro User's Group Code of Ethics

Chicago Final Cut Pro User's Group NFP, Chicago, Illinois:

It is the mission of the Chicago Final Cut Pro Users Group (CHIFCPUG) to maintain a high standard of ethical conduct within the Users Group and in relationships with the community and business associates such as hardware vendors, software vendors, etc. All business conducted on behalf of the CHIFCPUG must be conducted in a manner which maintains the independence, reputation and integrity of the CHIFCPUG. Members are expected to adhere to the prescribed rules of conduct. Failure of any Member to follow the prescribed rules of conduct will be reviewed by the Board of Directors for continued User Group Membership eligibility.

1. Members will not use the organization name's, Chicago Final Cut Pro User's Group, in any activity that results in personal gain. The use of the group's name may not be used without the expressed written permission of the Board of Directors.
2. Members will not use their User Group affiliation to solicit any products, equipment, or favors from vendors without the expressed permission of the Board of Director's.
3. Members will project an attitude of courtesy and respect for other Members, User Group activities, and User Group property.
4. Members will maintain a high degree of integrity within the community, and always act in the best interest of the Chicago Final Cut Pro User's Group when called upon.
5. Members will refrain from the exchange, copying, and distribution of copyrighted software.
6. Members will act in a polite and courteous manner during all User Group activities. They shall freely and openly share their computer knowledge with other Members.
7. Members doing business on behalf of CHIFCPUG shall avoid any situation which creates a conflict or appearance of conflict between CHIFCPUG interests and personal or business interests.